Introduction

Athy College is a co-educational post-primary school in Athy, County Kildare. In 2010, the school moved to a newly built school building located at Tomard, Monasterevin Road, Athy. It is one of four schools on this campus which is owned by Kildare Wicklow Education and Training Board.

Athy College Educational Policy

Education could be defined as the on-going development of each one of us so that we may realise our true and best self. It follows, therefore, that educators should be open to change and innovation, initiators of new development in this continuing, life-long process we call education. Students should feel themselves to be partners in their own education.

The school aims to prepare students for public examinations, in an age when academic qualifications are indispensable for admission to further education and entry into many forms of employment. Therefore, the school pursues examination courses leading to:-

(a) Junior Certificate; Junior Certificate Schools Programme

(b) Leaving Certificate; Leaving Certificate Vocational, Leaving Certificate Applied

The school recognises that its students are of varying cultural and religious backgrounds, aspirations and abilities. The constitutional rights of students not to attend religious instruction are upheld by Athy College. Department of Education and Skills Junior Certificate Religious Education syllabus is offered to all Junior cycle students.

More and more is being expected of education in school. It should prepare students for life at work; for relationships; for leisure and for an ever-changing world, which demands for everyone, a capacity for adaptation and adjustment. To meet these needs, the school offers a variety of leisure activities and a sports programme, as well as fostering creative abilities and implements a Pastoral Care Programme to provide genuine human and social education aimed at developing the emotional growth of each student as an individual.

The school recognises the vital role that parents play in the overall education for their children. Contact with Parents is invaluable and they should feel free to visit the school, meet teachers by appointment and generally become involved in all aspects of school life. The HSCL co-ordinator facilitates this.

The school recognises the importance of the Community in which the student lives. For this reason, every effort is made to ensure that the student is aware of life in the community and is encouraged to be involved in organisations and activities. Athy College does not request fees or contributions as a condition of application for admission to the school or as a condition of continued enrolment in the school following admission. In accordance with the provisions of the Education (Admissions to Schools) Act 2013, implementation of the school's admission policy is a function of the school Principal.

Athy College Diversity, Inclusion and Equality

Athy College is a multi denominational co educational second level school under the governance of Kildare Wicklow Education and Training Board. The school welcomes students of all faiths and none.

Athy College is an inclusive school. The school respects, values and accommodates diversity in the student community. The school seeks positive experiences, a sense of belonging and the achievement of academic potential for all students. Students with disabilities and/or special educational needs are welcomed in Athy College and the school requests that parents work with the school authorities in providing all relevant information to the school to ensure the timely planning for physical and educational needs and the applications for additional resources.

Athy College notes the provision in the Equal Status Act that a school is exempt from the requirement to provide a service to a student with a disability in the event that doing so would (because of the student's disability) have a seriously detrimental effect on the provision of services to other students or would make it impossible to provide services to other students.
